

Ed McGeogh, Vice President, Asset Management,
The Morris & Gwendolyn Cafritz Foundation

In addition to serving as vice president - asset management for The Morris & Gwendolyn Cafritz Foundation—the largest private, independent, local foundation focused exclusively on the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area—McGeogh is also its chief investment officer. Before that, he was a senior officer at the Bank of America for 34 years. He also has enjoyed numerous senior management positions in commercial lending and wealth management during his banking career. McGeogh was educated in business at Grove City College in Pennsylvania and the Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University.